GRANT GUIDELINES

An applicant must be a tax-exempt 501(c)(3) organization and either registered as a charity with the Mississippi Secretary of State or have an exemption from the Mississippi Secretary of State. The applicant must include documentation of both designations.

The purpose of the JYL Community Outreach Grant is to serve citizens of the Greater Jackson Metro Area. The charity should provide services to all citizens and not discriminate on the basis of race, color, gender, age, ethnicity, national origin, religion, sexual orientation or disability (in accordance with federal laws). The applicant must explain how the grant will directly impact the lives of citizens in the Jackson Metro Area.

The charity may be affiliated with a religious organization, so long as the religious organization does not discriminate based on race, color, gender, age, ethnicity, national origin, religion, sexual orientation or disability (in accordance with federal laws). The charity may not be a church, and grant funds may not be used for religious purposes.

The grant may not be used for purposes of raising money for medical research.

The grant must be requested for a specific item, project or service. Grant requests cannot be made for general operating expenses. The applicant must disclose whether the grant amount will be matched with other funds to pay for the item, project or service. If so, the applicant must explain the source of the matching funds.

In addition to the above information, the applicant must also provide the following information:

- The annual operating budget of the charity.
- The date the charity was established.
- An annual financial statement and statement of operation/cash flows.
- The percentage of revenue spent on programs versus administrative expenses.
- Whether the charity employs professional fund-raisers for its solicitations.
- A list of board and advisory members, along with their employers and occupations.
- A list of members of JYL who are affiliated with the charity, including whether any members serve on the board of the charity or volunteer with the charity.
- Any letters or e-mails in support from members of the JYL.

SELECTION PROCESS AND NOTIFICATION

Upon receipt of applications, members of the JYL Outreach Projects Committee will conduct a thorough study of each application. If necessary, site visits may be scheduled at the discretion of the Committee. Please do not contact JYL requesting a site visit. If the Committee determines that additional information is needed, you will be contacted.

All applicants will be notified of the result of their application within approximately 60 days from the submission deadline.

GRANT AGREEMENT

By submitting an application, you are agreeing to the following terms and conditions:

1. Funds received will be expended only for the purposes stated in the grant application and in accordance with section 501(c)(3), section 4945 and the other applicable provisions of the Internal Revenue Code.
2. JYL may monitor and conduct an evaluation of operations under this grant, including requesting financial records related to the grant or your tax status, which must be provided in a timely manner if so requested.
3. You must immediately notify JYL of any change in your organization's federal tax status or that of your fiscal agent during the time the funds are being spent.
4. The grant may be discontinued, modified or withheld if, in the sole judgment of the JYL, such action is necessary.
5. No funds from the JYL may be used for propaganda purposes, including, but not limited to, to influence legislation, to influence the outcome of an election, or for direct or indirect use in a voter registration drive.
6. Any request for a change in purpose for use of grant funds must be submitted in writing to JYL and approved before any changes in designated purpose may take effect.
7. Any portion of grant funds not used in accordance with these terms and conditions will result in immediate forfeiture of grant funds and all such monies received must be immediately returned to JYL.
8. Publicity concerning the grant award is welcomed by JYL. Any promotional materials, including press releases, produced in connection with or to publicize the funded program should note that it was funded in part or sponsored by JYL.
